(Please note that while there are many people, particularly Democrat elected officials, specifically named on the attached printed material, we, the Rock Island County Republican Central Committee, do not believe, at this time, that these individuals were active participants in the following violations of FEC law. Therefore, we purposely didn't include them in the complaint. However, should evidence surface that implicates these individuals as being involved in the mentioned activities and violations, we would like to reserve the right to amend this complaint to include them as respondents.)

Summary of Complaint

In his 1998 campaign, Congressman Lane Evans with the assistance of Democrat political leaders in the 17th Congressional District committed gross and flagrant violations of FEC laws governing campaign finance. Together, they funneled hundreds of thousands of dollars in soft money through at least four separate committees to pay for advertising urging Evans' re-election and his opponent's defeat.

In doing so, they committed a myriad of FEC violations ranging from the illegal use of corporate contributions in a federal campaign to the use of prohibited funds to pay for express advocacy communications for Lane Evans. Perhaps most egregious is their creation of a sham committee, the Rock Island GOTV Committee, through which untold thousands of dollars in soft money was funneled to pay for advertising benefiting Congressman Evans' campaign.

The complexity of this complaint demonstrates the lengths at which the respondents went to avoid detection of their activities. Because of that, the complaint is divided into three parts:

Part One establishes the affiliation of the Rock Island Democratic Central Committee, the Rock Island GOTV Committee, the 17th District Victory Fund, the Knox County Democratic Central Committee and the Democratic Party of Illinois

Part Two establishes the coordination of the above mentioned committees and their use of prohibited funds to produce and pay for communications containing "express advocacy."

Part Three lists additional violations committed by the respondents.

PART ONE: AFFILIATION OF COMMITTEES

According to FEC law, local party committees are presumed to be under the direction and control of the state party committee -- and thus affiliated with the state committee -- unless they can demonstrate otherwise. 110.3 (b) (3)

The regulations also state that party committees are affiliated if:

- the political committee of the party unit in question received funds from any other political committee established, financed, maintained or controlled by any party unit;
- the political committee of the party unit in question makes its contributions in cooperation, consultation or concert with, or at the request or suggestion of any other party unit or political committee established, financed, maintained or controlled by another party unit. 11 CFR 110.1 (3) (b) (ii) AO 1978-9

The Rock Island Democratic Central Committee, the Rock Island GOTV Committee, the Knox County Democratic Central Committee, the 17th District Victory Fund and the Democratic Party of Illinois are affiliated party committees.

Evidence:

1. As a local committee within the same state, the Knox County Democratic Central Committee is affiliated with the Democratic Party of Illinois.
 - The Knox County Democratic Central Committee is not registered with the FEC.
2. The Rock Island Democratic Central Committee is affiliated with the Democratic Party of Illinois. It is a local committee within the same state and received contributions from the state party.
 - The Rock Island Democratic Central Committee is not registered with the FEC.
 - According to their State Campaign Disclosure Report (Form D-2) for the period of July 1, 1998 to December 31, 1998, the Rock Island Democratic Central Committee received a $2000 contribution from the Democratic Party of Illinois on October 31, 1998. (Please see Appendix 1, Schedule A, Part2.)
 - According to the above mentioned report, the Rock Island Democratic Central Committee also received the following contributions which may be from other affiliated party committees: (Please see Appendix 1, Schedule A, Part 2.)
 - $1295.22 from the Democratic County Chairman's Association, P.O. Box 3445, Springfield, IL 62708
 - $1000 from the Democratic Women's Club, 8510 49th Street, Coal Valley, IL 61240

- $1000 from the Rock Island/South Rock Island Committeemen, 2001 28th Street, Rock Island, IL 61201
- $3000 from the Rock Island County Democratic Party, P O. Box 3128, Rock Island, IL 61201
- $4000 from the 23rd Ward Regular Demo Organization, 5838 Archer Avenue, Chicago, IL 60638

3. The Rock Island Democratic Central Committee and the Rock Island GOTV Committee are affiliated

- According to the Rock Island Post Office, the return mailing address, P.O. Box 3128, Rock Island, IL 61204-3128, on two pieces of mail with the disclaimer, "Paid for by the Rock Island GOTV Committee," is registered to the Rock Island County Democratic Central Committee. (Please see Appendix 7 and 8.)
- According to their State Campaign Disclosure Report (Form D-2) for the period of July 1, 1998 to December 31, 1998, the Rock Island Democratic Central Committee made a $3000 expenditure on November 5, 1998 to the Rock Island GOTV Committee. (Please see Appendix 1, Schedule B, Part 6.)

4 The Rock Island Democratic Central Committee and the 17th District Victory Fund are affiliated. John Gianulis is Chairman for both the committees and therefore controls contributions made by both committees.

- According to information filed with the Illinois State Board of Elections, John Gianulis is Chairman of the Rock Island Democratic Central Committee (Please see Appendix 2, Page 1.)
- According to information filed with the Illinois State Board of Elections, John Gianulis is also Chairman of the 17th District Victory Fund. (Please see Appendix 2, Page 4.)
- According to campaign literature paid for by the 17th District Victory Fund, John Gianulis is named Chairman of the 17th District Victory Fund. The disclaimer on the literature states, "Paid for by the 17th District Victory Fund, John Gianulis, Chairman." (Please see Appendix 3)
- According to their State Campaign Disclosure Report (Form D-2) for the period of July 1, 1998 to December 31, 1998, the Rock Island Democratic Central Committee received a $1000 loan from John Gianulis on July 6, 1998, which was repaid on the same date. According to the same report, the committee owes an outstanding debt of $1996.19 to Mr Gianulis. (Please see Appendix 1, Schedule A, Part 3; and Schedule C.)

5. The 17th District Victory Fund and the Democratic Party of Illinois are affiliated.

- John Gianulis is chairman of the Rock Island County Democratic Central Committee, a local committee affiliated with the Democratic Party of Illinois, and chairman of the 17th District Victory Fund.
- In its Post-General FEC report, the AFL-CIO reported a $5000 contribution on October 22, 1998 to the "Illinois Democratic Party Seventeenth Dist. Victory." It appears they believed that the two committees were affiliated. (Please see Appendix 4.)

VIOLATIONS:

A. Knowingly and willfully providing false information to the FEC.

The respondents knowingly and willfully provided false information to the FEC regarding the affiliation of the 17th District Victory Fund and the Democratic Party of Illinois.

The 17th District Victory Fund registered with the Federal Elections Commission as a non-qualified Democrat party committee. According to a letter dated July 17, 1998 and received by the FEC on July 21, 1998, Connie Engholm, treasurer for the 17th District Victory Fund, stated "the 17th District Victory Fund is not affiliated with the Democratic Party of Illinois." (Please see Appendix 11.)

This is false. As demonstrated in Part One, the Rock Island Democratic Central Committee, the 17th District Victory Fund, the Knox County Democratic Central Committee and the Democratic Party of Illinois are affiliated.

B Violation of Contribution Limits

According to FEC law, all contributions received and made by local party committees count against the state committee limits. 110.1 (b) (3)

This means that the state committee and local committees may receive a maximum of $5000 per calendar year from any one contributor. 110.1 (d) (1) Similarly, the state committee and the local committee together may not contribute more than $5000 per candidate, per election. 110 2 (b) (1)

As the above mentioned committees are affiliated, together the committees received contributions exceeding the total combined contribution limit, $1000 per individual and $5000 per PAC, from numerous contributors Please refer to the following for a complete list of the contributions:

- Democratic Party of Illinois FEC reports.

- Illinois State Board of Elections Campaign Disclosure Reports for the Rock Island Democratic Central Committee. (Please see Appendix 1, Schedule A, Part 2)
- Illinois State Board of Elections Campaign Disclosure Reports for the 17th District Victory Fund. (Please see Appendix 5.)

PART TWO: COORDINATION OF COMMITTEES TO PRODUCE AND PAY FOR COMMUNICATIONS CONTAINING EXPRESS ADVOCACY

According to FEC law, "express advocacy exists when a communication is found to contain a message that unmistakably urges the election or defeat of one or more federal candidates. A communication will be found to clearly identify a candidate if it contains the candidates name, . . . photograph . . . [and] a communication that, for instance comments on the character, qualifications, and accomplishments may be considered express advocacy if, in context, it has no other reasonable meaning than to encourage actions to elect or defeat a federal candidate. . . . The commission will consider the relevance of the timing of these communications on a case-by-case basis."

According to FEC law, coordinated activities between campaign committees and other political committees, including state parties, local parties committees, and independent committees must be reported accordingly.

Working in coordination, Congressman Lane Evans and the respondents used prohibited funds funneled through the committees named in Part One to pay for communications, including television, radio and direct mail, that contain "express advocacy " The communications urged the election of Lane Evans and/or the defeat of Mark Baker. The respondents also used prohibited funds funneled through the 17th District Victory Fund to pay for campaign staff for Congressman Lane Evans' grassroots activities.

Evidence:

1. Television Commercial

- Script of the commercial:

"Who can we count on to fight for working families? Not Mark Baker. Republicans like Mark Baker favor cutting Medicare by $70 Billion to give a tax cut to the rich. Baker doesn't even believe there should be a minimum wage. He thinks families can live on less than $11,000 per year Mark Baker's plan to privatize social security would put every retiree at risk. Call your Congressman. Tell him to oppose Mark Baker's plan to hurt working families."

Text listed: Call 202-224-3121 (Capitol Switchboard)

- The disclaimer is "Paid for by the Democratic Party of Illinois."
- The commercial used a picture of Mark Baker

- The commercial attacks Mark Baker's character by saying working families can't count on him ("Who can we count on to fight for working families? Not Mark Baker."); that he "doesn't even believe there should be a minimum wage. He thinks families can live on less than $11,000 per year," and telling voters "to oppose Mark Baker's plan to hurt working families."
- The commercial also comments on his accomplishments, twice referring to his alleged "plan "
- The television commercial aired during the last four weeks of the election cycle and up until Election Day on November 3rd.
- During the time period the commercial aired, Congress was not in session and there was no legislation regarding the issues mentioned up for a vote in the House of Representatives.
- According to their FEC reports, the Democratic Party of Illinois failed to report an independent expenditure, an in-kind contribution or coordinated expenditure on behalf of Lane Evans.
- Please see Appendix 6, which are copies of media buys in the Rock Island media markets. The Democratic Party of Illinois also paid for television media buys in the Quincy media market

2 Direct Mail

(Please note that while the disclaimer notice on the direct mail says "Paid for by the Rock Island County GOTV Committee," legally no such committee exists.)

Please see Appendix 7, which is a copy of direct mail piece #1.

- Direct mail piece #1 includes a message that unmistakably urges the election of a federal candidate (underline added for emphasis):

"On Tuesday, November 3rd, Vote for Congressman Lane Evans and the Entire Democrat Ticket "

- The first direct mail piece arrived at voters' homes on or around October 19, 1998.

Please see Appendix 8, which is a copy of direct mail piece #2.

- Direct mail piece #2 includes a message that unmistakably urges the election of one federal candidate (Lane Evans) and the defeat of another (Mark Baker) (underline added for emphasis):

This Election Is Too Important To Stay Home on Tuesday, November 3 Vote for Congressman Lane Evans and the Entire Democrat Ticket

- It includes a photograph of the candidate: Lane Evans with two unidentified people.
- It uses Lane Evans' campaign slogan. "He's more than a congressman, He's a friend of the family."
- It comments on character, qualifications and accomplishments for or against a federal candidate, including:

"Lane's opponent wants to change our Social Security System to the one they have in South America. We simply cannot afford to let this happen."

"No one works harder for our senior citizens than Congressman Lane Evans "

"Lane has been endorsed by almost every Senior Citizen Group in the state and nation. He deserves and needs our support."

"Congressman Evans has been a longtime supporter of our county nursing home The needs of the residents and employees are truly his concern."

- The second mail piece arrived at homes on or around October 26, 1998.

Additional Information:

- Lane Evans is listed as a member of the Rock Island County GOTV Committee on both pieces of direct mail. (Please see Appendix 7 and 8)
- The photograph on the second direct mail piece was clearly provided by the campaign. (Please see Appendix 8)
- According to the Rock Island Post Office, the return mailing address on both pieces of mail, P.O. Box 3128, Rock Island, IL 61204-3128, is registered to the Rock Island County Democratic Central Committee (Please see Appendix 7 and 8.)

3. Radio

- The radio commercial included the following language:

Name of the federal candidate Congressman Lane Evans was the only candidate mentioned by name in the radio commercial.

The script commented on his character, qualifications and accomplishments.

The final lines of the radio commercial said, "Lane Evans has always stood by us. Now, it's time for us to stand by Lane Evans. On November 3rd, Vote for the entire Democrat ticket "

- The radio commercial aired in the Rock Island media market used the disclaimer "Paid for by the Rock Island GOTV Committee," of which Lane Evans is a member.
- The same radio commercial aired in the Galesburg media market with the disclaimer, "Paid for by the Knox County Democratic Central Committee."
- The radio commercials aired during the 2 week period just prior to the November 3rd federal election.
- Kevin Gash is listed as a representative of the Knox County Democratic Central Committee on the NAB Agreement Form for Political Broadcasts for WAAG and WGIL. (Please see Appendix 9.) According to their FEC report, Kevin Gash is as a paid employee for Friends of Lane Evans (Please see Appendix 14.)
- Please see Appendix 9, which are copies of the radio media schedules for the Galesburg media market.
- Please see Appendix 10, which are copies of the radio media schedules for the Rock Island media market.

4. Campaign staff

- The campaign headquarters for Friends of Lane Evans and the 17th District Victory Fund were located on the same floor in the same building.
- In a televised debate, Lane Evans said, "We've had the help of some students from across this country come into this race. I'm very proud of them. They're part of the so-called campaign school."
- Strategic Consulting Group is responsible for the so-called campaign school.
- According to their FEC reports and their State Campaign Disclosure Report (Form D-2) for the period of July 1, 1998 to December 31, 1998, the 17th District Victory Fund paid over $80,000 to the Strategic Consulting Group who then paid the campaign staff for the 17th District Victory Fund (Please see Appendix 5, Schedule B, Part 8)

- Based on information and belief, the campaign manager for Friends of Lane Evans held organizational planning meetings every Sunday with the staff of the 17th District Victory Fund.

VIOLATIONS:

A. Violation of registration and filing requirements

According to FEC law, a committee that exceeds $1000 threshold in express advocacy of a federal candidate must register and file with the FEC.

The Rock Island Democratic Central Committee and Knox County Democratic Committee each exceeded the $1000 threshold in express advocacy of a federal candidate, Lane Evans, and failed to register and file with the FEC.

- According to their State Campaign Disclosure Report (Form D-2) for reporting period July 1 to December 31, 1998, the Rock Island Democratic Central Committee gave a $1000 contribution to Friends of Lane Evans. (Please see Appendix 1, Schedule B, Part 8)
- According to the Rock Island Post Office, the return mailing address, P.O. Box 3128, Rock Island, IL 61204-3128, on both pieces of direct mail referred to in this complaint, is registered to the Rock Island Democratic Central Committee. (Please see Appendix 7 and 8.)
- According to their State Campaign Disclosure Report (Form D-2) for reporting period July 1 to December 31, 1998, the Rock Island Democratic Central Committee made an expenditure for postage for bulk mail in the amount of $13,764 30 This expenditure may be at least partial payment for postage on the direct mail referred to in this complaint. (Please see Appendix 1, Schedule B, Part 8.)
- In the above mentioned report, the Rock Island Democratic Central Committee made an expenditure in the amount of $12,001.44 to Axelrod and Associates, 730 N. Franklin, Suite 404, Chicago, IL 60610 for radio buy and production costs. This expenditure may be at least partial payment for the production and radio air time for the commercials referred to in this complaint. (Please see Appendix 1, Schedule B, Part 8 and Appendix 10.)
- According to radio buys in the Galesburg media market, the Knox County Democratic Central Committee made expenditures in excess of $1000 on behalf of Lane Evans. (Please see Appendix 9)

B. Violation of registration and filing requirements

According to the FEC, a committee that exceeds $1000 threshold in express advocacy of a federal candidate must register and file with the FEC.

Although there is no way to account for the money spent by the Rock Island GOTV Committee on behalf of Congressman Lane Evans, there is evidence the committee was operating a bank account. Based on information and belief, the committee exceeded the $1000 threshold in express advocacy of a federal candidate, Lane Evans.

- The committee paid for at least two direct mail pieces and production and air time for radio commercials that contain "express advocacy" urging the re-election of Congressman Lane Evans.
- According to their Post General FEC report, the Chicago and Central States, United -- PEC reported an October 23, 1998 contribution in the amount of $500 to the Rock Island GOTV Committee, 1512 4th Avenue, Rock Island, IL 61201. (Please see Appendix 12, Page 2.)
- According to their State Campaign Disclosure Report (Form D-2) for reporting period July 1 to December 31, 1998, the Rock Island Democratic Central Committee made a $3000 expenditure on November 5, 1998 to the Rock Island GOTV Committee (Please see Appendix 1, Schedule B, Part 6.)

C. Violation of disclaimer requirements

According to FEC law, if express advocacy exists, certain FEC regulations governing disclaimer notices apply. When a campaign uses public political advertising to expressly advocate the election or defeat of a clearly identified candidate, the communication must display an authorization notice. The required wording of a notice depends on who financed the communication. Three possibilities exist:

- 1. If a campaign finances a communication, the notice must merely state that the communication was paid for and authorized by the committee.*
- 2. If the communication is authorized by the campaign but paid for by another person, the communication must identify the person who paid for it and state that it was authorized by the campaign.*
- 3. If the communication advocates the election of a federal candidate and is not authorized by the campaign, the notice must identify the person who paid for the communication and state that it was not authorized by the campaign. This type of notice must be used on independent expenditures.*

The respondents violated the law regarding disclaimer notices by using a false disclaimer, "Paid for by the Rock Island GOTV Committee," on both pieces of direct mail and on the radio commercials referred to in this complaint. The respondents violated the law regarding disclaimer notices by not including an authorization notice of Friends of Lane Evans

- The Rock Island GOTV Committee is not registered with the FEC or State of Illinois Board of Elections.
- According to the Rock Island Post Office, the return mailing address on both direct mail pieces, P.O. Box 3128, Rock Island, IL 61204-3128, is registered to the Rock Island Democratic Central Committee.
- According to the Rock Island Post Office, the bulk rate permit on both direct mail pieces, Permit #211, is registered to J V Consulting, P.O. Box 3222, Rock Island, IL 61204-3222
- According to their State Campaign Disclosure Report (Form D-2) for reporting period July 1 to December 31, 1998, the Rock Island Democratic Central Committee received in-kind contributions totaling $4930.44 from J V. Consulting, P.O. Box 3222, Rock Island, IL 61204-3222. This expenditure (in-kind contribution) is at least partial payment for the direct mail referred to in this complaint. (Please see Appendix 1, Schedule I.)
- In the same above mentioned report, the Rock Island Democratic Central Committee made an expenditure for postage for bulk mail in the amount of $13,764.30. This expenditure may be at least partial payment for postage on the direct mail referred to in this complaint. (Please see Appendix 1, Schedule B, Part 8.)
- In the same above mentioned report, the Rock Island Democratic Central Committee made an expenditure in the amount of $12,001.44 to Axelrod and Associates, 730 N. Franklin, Suite 404, Chicago, IL 60610 for radio buy and production costs. This expenditure may be payment for the production and radio air time for the commercials referred to in this complaint. (Please see Appendix 1, Schedule B, Part 8 and Appendix 10.)
- According to their FEC reports and their State Campaign Disclosure Report (Form D-2), the 17th District Victory Fund paid over $75,000 to Consensus Communications, Inc. 1440 N. Kingsbury, Ste. 219, Chicago, IL 60622 and to the U.S. Postmaster for direct mail and postage. Based on information and belief, this money was used for communications that contain "express advocacy" for the election of a federal candidate, Congressman Lane Evans. (Please see Appendix 5, Schedule B, Part 8)

D. Violation of use of prohibited funds

According to FEC law, corporations are prohibited from making contributions or expenditures in connection with federal elections. (11CFR 114.2)

25074113569

J.V. Consulting, Inc., a corporation registered with the state of Illinois, paid for direct mail that benefited Congressman Lane Evans and was coordinated by the Rock Island Democratic Central Committee, the Rock Island GOTV Committee and Friends of Lane Evans.

- According to the Rock Island Post Office, the bulk rate permit on both direct mail pieces that contain "express advocacy" for a federal candidate, Permit #211, is registered to J V. Consulting, P.O. Box 3222, Rock Island, IL 61204-3222 (Please see Appendix 7 and 8.)
- According to their State Campaign Disclosure Report (Form D-2) for reporting period July 1 to December 31, 1998, the Rock Island Democratic Central Committee received in-kind contributions totaling $4930.44 from J V. Consulting, P.O. Box 3222, Rock Island, IL 61204-3222 This expenditure (in-kind contribution) is at least partial payment for the direct mail referred to in this complaint. (Please see Appendix 1, Schedule I.)
- J.V. Consulting is registered with the Illinois Secretary of State as a corporation.

E. Violation of contribution limits

According to FEC law, party committees that engage in both federal and non-federal activities must follow certain rules to ensure that federal activity is financed with funds that comply with the limitations and prohibitions of the Act. Federal activities include contributions and other spending on behalf of specific federal candidates.

Contributions to influence federal elections are subject to limits (and prohibitions) of the Federal Elections Campaign Act. A contribution that exceeds the limit is a violation of the Act. 110.9 (a) A committee may contribute up to $1000 to a candidate, per election, unless it has qualified as a multi-candidate committee. 110.1 (1) (b) The state committee and local committees may not contribute more than $5000 per candidate, per election.

The respondents exceeded the contribution limit of $5000 for a state party committee and affiliated local party committees to a federal candidate

Following are expenditures made by the respective committees on behalf of federal candidate Congressman Lane Evans:

- Democratic Party of Illinois: (Please see Appendix 6)
At least $200,000 for television commercials
- Rock Island County Democratic Central Committee: (See Appendix 1)
At least $19941.40 for direct mail
At least $12001.44 for radio commercials

- Knox County Democratic Central Committee: (Please see Appendix 9).
At least $1046.10 for radio commercials
- 17th District Victory Fund: (Please see Appendix 5)
At least $75,000 for direct mail and postage
At least $17,534.29 for paid campaign staff
At least $88,500 to Strategic Consulting Group, a consulting firm, who paid a campaign staff to work on behalf of Lane Evans and the 17th District Victory Fund.

According to FEC reports, the following are contributions from local party committees affiliated with the Democratic Party of Illinois to Friends of Lane Evans. The total amount contributed is over $5000.

- Adams Co. Democratic Women's Club on April 4, 1998 for $100
- Hancock County Democratic Women on April 24, 1998 for $300
- Knox Co. Democratic Women on June 29, 1998 for $97.75 and $10 (in-kind)
- Warren County Democrats on July 27, 1998 for $50
- Western IL Demo Days on September 15, 1998 for $500
- Whiteside County Democratic Central Committee on July 12, 1998 for $900
- Henderson County Democrats on September 21, 1998 for $200
- Carroll County Democrats on July 12, 1998 for $450
- McDonough County Democratic Coalition on October 14, 1998 for $250
- De Pue Democratic Club on October 21, 1998 for $400
- Rock Island Democratic Central Committee on October 30, 1998 for $1000
- Rock Island County Democratic Women's Club on October 22, 1998 for $1000
- Stark County Democrats on November 2, 1998 for $150
- Western IL Demo Days on October 25, 1998 for $100

F. Violation of reporting requirements

According to the FEC, candidate support activities must be paid for with permissible funds and must be reported as an in-kind contribution, an independent expenditure, or a coordinated expenditure.

According to their FEC reports, the Democratic Party of Illinois failed to report the television commercials produced and aired to benefit Lane Evans campaign as an independent expenditure, an in-kind contribution or a coordinated expense.

G. Violation of reporting requirements

According to the FEC, an expenditure made in cooperation, consultation or concert with, or at the request or suggestion of a candidates campaign, is considered an in-kind contribution to the candidate. The value of an in-kind contribution counts against the same contribution of a gift of money. The contribution limit is $1000 per individual and $5000 per PAC per election cycle.

According to his Pre-General and Post-General FEC reports, Friends of Lane Evans failed to report the expenditures for direct mail and radio referred to in this complaint as in-kind contributions. As the communications were coordinated, they should be reported as an in-kind contribution.

H Failure to report in-kind contributions

According to FEC law, an individual may volunteer uncompensated personal services to a party committee without making a contribution. 10017 (b) (3) Volunteer activity is not reportable. Note, however, that if volunteers are in fact paid for their services by someone other than the party committee, the activity is no longer considered volunteering, and the payments result in in-kind contributions to the party committee. 100.7 (a) (3)

While volunteering, an individual may pay for normal subsistence expenses (lodging and meals) without making a contribution. 100.7 (b) (8)

The 17th District Victory Fund paid Strategic Consulting Group who then paid for the services and living expenses of at least 17 people who were working for the committee. Therefore, their activities are not considered volunteer activities and should be reported.

- According to an article in the Moline Dispatch, at least 17 people from all over the country came into the 17th District to work for the 17th District Victory Fund. (See Appendix 13).
- In a televised debate, Lane Evans said, "We've had the help of some students from across this country come into this race. I'm very proud of them. They're part of the so-called campaign school."
- According to their FEC reports and their State Campaign Disclosure Report (Form D-2) for the period of July 1, 1998 to December 31, 1998, the 17th District Victory Fund paid over $80,000 to the Strategic Consulting Group. Based on information and belief, Strategic Consulting Group then paid for the living expenses and salaries of these workers. (Appendix 5).

PART THREE: OTHER VIOLATIONS

A. Violation of reporting requirements

According to FEC law, all disbursements are reportable by the campaign. Disbursements in excess of $200 must be identified by the amount, date, name and address of payee, and purpose. 102.9 (b) (1).

Friends of Lane Evans failed to report an expenditure in the amount of $3000 to the Rock Island Democratic Central Committee. No such expenditure could be found in their October, Pre-general or Post-general FEC reports.

- According to the State Campaign Disclosure Report (Form D-2) for the period July 1 to December 31, 1998, the Rock Island Democratic Central Committee received a $3000 contribution from Friends of Lane Evans on October 19, 1998. (Please see Appendix 1, Schedule A, Part 2.)

B. Violation of contribution limits

According to FEC law, a contribution received by a party committee may count against contributor's contribution limit for the candidate if the contributor knows that a substantial portion of his or her contribution will be given to or spent on behalf of a particular candidate.

Based on information and belief, the 17th District Victory Fund solicited contributions that were intended for the sole purpose of influencing a federal election and urging the election of Lane Evans.

- Mimi Alschuler & Associates, 334 S. Kennilworth, Oak Park, IL 60302 was a paid fundraising consultant for Friends of Lane Evans and the 17th District Victory Fund. (Please see Appendix 5, Schedule B, Part 8.)
- In its Pre-General FEC report, the Chicago and Central States, UNITE - PEC noted that the "purpose of disbursement" for a $3,000 contribution made by them on October 7, 1998 to the 17th District Victory Fund is for "Lane Evans, Illinois 17th District." It appears they believed their contribution was meant to benefit the election of Congressman Lane Evans. (Please see Appendix 12, Page 1.)
- Based on information and belief, Solange MacArthur and Robert O. Muller, 1628 21st Street, NW Washington, D.C. 20009 made contributions totaling $45,000 to the 17th District Victory Fund that were solely intended to benefit the election of a federal candidate, Congressman Lane Evans (Please see Appendix 5, Schedule A, Part 1.)

DEMOCRATS SUPPORT A PATIENTS' BILL OF RIGHTS TO PROTECT YOUR FAMILY.

Democrats from the U S. House of Representatives to the State House have been working for reforms that put patients and their doctors back in control of health care decisions

Democratic Patients' Bill of Rights Plan

- Choice of Doctor
- All medical decisions are made by medical professionals, not accountants
- Guaranteed access to specialist care
- Coverage for all FDA-approved drugs and devices
- Policies written in plain, simple English

REPUBLICANS ARE BLOCKING PATIENTS' BILL OF RIGHTS LAWS.

While Democrats fight to protect working families and safeguard our health care decisions, the Republicans are trying to stall and block meaningful reforms of HMO's. Instead, they are offering watered down proposals that are designed to protect HMO's and insurance companies from legal responsibility for their actions, rather than protecting patients' access to care

On Election Day, our votes can make sure health care decisions are made by patients and doctors, not accountants.

The stakes are too high to stay home.

Outsiders eye House race

Outside money, help-pour into dist

By Edward Felker
Washington Bureau

Moline native and union employee Jennifer Hensley spent the summer pushing the Sierra Club's opposition to big hog farms. She also made sure to tell them how Rep Lane Evans agreed with the club far more than challenger Mark Baker.

But it was only a few days ago that Ms Hensley, 24, was legally allowed to pick up the phone and call Mr Evans' campaign, or take a call from them.

Until then, she was running the club's nonpartisan "voter education" campaign. Completely allowable under federal law, the club spent about $200,000 with no requirement to disclose or limit the spending as long as it made no candidate endorsement and no contact was made between the club and any campaign.

On Oct 12 all that changed. Ms Hensley became a club-paid staffer for Mr Evans, with the Sierra Club having to disclose her salary and expenses from that point as an in-kind contribution to the lawmaker.

Though she was nominally not working for Mr Evans before, the outcome may be as good as if she did.

"We have a lot of small farmers who hadn't voted for (Evans) that will now support him because of the hog farm issue," Ms Hensley said.

Ms Hensley's story is not uncommon in the world of politics. A tight campaign race anywhere is likely to attract a steady stream of outside political bigwigs and stealthy organizers who hope to push their candidate, and their goals, into the victory column.

The Sierra Club targeted some 24 House and Senate races this year and will spend about $3 million, said Daniel J Weiss, the club's political director. The race here was a good one for them because the hog farms offered a strong environmental issue and Mr. Evans was inclined to agree with the club's position.

"An incumbent running in an election that's close is much more likely to be receptive to our message," Mr Weiss said.

And the Sierra Club is just one of a number of special interests to dive into western Illinois this fall.

Mr Evans stands to benefit from work by a cadre of recruited volunteers, as well as from labor union organizers and his own party The AFL-CIO, for instance, has picked the district to run generic ads calling for health care reform.

Mr Baker, from Quincy, has his own outside American Farm Bureau, the National Commerce, and the the Republican Party tied to his cause.

A number of Republicans tromped through the district to help Mr Baker. His publicity and funding are well known, as Majority Leader Rick Warren, R-Texas. Others, such as Harrison, a co-chair of the Republican National Committee, at best earn recognition for party faithful.

"It helps energize Mr Baker said after with Ms. Harrison's publicity and funding of a little bonus for the campaign."

Meanwhile, the local campaign with pro-Republican as the district, one of the nationally, to encourage the polls and to tell Baker is among the "agree with these."

ROCK ISLAND — In the fall of 1982, Rep Lane Evans won his first race for Congress with the help of a dedicated band of local volunteers.

This year the Rock Island Democrat is again relying on the help of volunteers. This time, though, they have been recruited from around the country and have their overhead covered by labor union money.

In return for seven days a week of work, they get invaluable campaign training and experience.

Meet Jim Reed Jr. A lawyer by profession, he volunteered this summer to come to the Quad-Cities from his Chicago home to boost Mr Evans' campaign — while building his own political resume.

"He had such a phenomenal campaign record, he seemed like the kind of candidate I wanted to work for," Mr Reed said of Mr Evans.

Active in community affairs in Chicago and the son of a Democratic county chairman, Mr Reed, 36, wants to become a campaign manager and later run for office himself.

"I want to run at the city level in Chicago, or at the state level," he said.

Though he's working to get Mr Evans re-elected, Mr Reed didn't join the Evans campaign. He saw an advertisement in a Chicago newspaper and applied for, and got, an offer from the 17th District Victory Fund.

Under federal campaign law, the fund is defined as a local Democratic Party committee that is working to elect the party's slate for congressional, state and local offices. The fund's treasurer is being spent by the National Republican Campaign Committee, beyond the $70,000 or so it can give in direct cash and in-kind help.

And if the Sierra Club has a local counterpart, it is the National Chamber of Commerce and its state chapter. The state chapter put Mr. Baker to work as a regional director after his 1996 campaign defeat, and the national chamber has done much to quietly help him raise money from business people and political action committees in Illinois and in Washington.

Doug Loon, political director for the national chamber, said the match has been a good one, even though his group has not given Mr. Baker a direct contribution.

The group first started working with Mr. Baker in early 1996, during his first race against Mr. Evans, and has been with him since. He and they see alike on such issues as fewer regulations on small business and opposition to increases in the minimum wage. Because of that, the Evans-Baker race is among 50 or so races nationwide where the chamber is most active.

"This is one of the races we love to spotlight because of those issues," Mr. Loon said. Indeed, the group sent chairman William G. Little to present its formal endorsement.

Not to be outdone is organized labor. In addition to the money it has given to Mr. Evans via political action committee contributions, labor has also mobilized its formidable get-out-the-vote machine.

Renaye Manley, of Hammond, Ind., has spent about two days a week this fall in the Quad-Cities to get African-American union members interested in the election and out to the polls on Nov. 3. She's coordinating with the local chapter of the A. Philip Randolph Institute, a wing of the AFL-CIO that focuses on minority laborers.

In a way similar to the Sierra Club's efforts, Ms. Manley has stuck to a nonpartisan agenda that has not allowed her to have any contact with candidates or political parties.

"We're going to be targeting precincts here in Rock Island and East Moline," said Ms. Manley, who gives her age as "mid-30s." Her methods: tried-and-true telephone calls and knocking on doors.

Part of the reason she is here is to boost the role of the Randolph Institute chapter in local labor circles. But also she knows the Evans-Baker race may turn on the labor turnout, and turnout is the acknowledged key to victory.

"Everybody was interested in this race because it would be targeted and would come down to the wire," Ms. Manley said.

Connie Engholm, a press operator at Deere & Co. who also chairs the local United Auto Workers get-out-the-vote operation.

Mr. Reed is the sole Illinoisan among 17 young people who have joined what is called the "campaign school," so named because they are tutored on the fine points of campaigns by seasoned pros.

The school is headed by Sean Bertram, a Canadian who has lived in the U.S. for five years — but isn't a citizen and can't vote.

The overall goal is to contact as many likely Democratic voters as possible before Election Day and get them at least to the polls, if not actively working in some way for a candidate.

Mr. Bertram described the school as a "Democratic party-building organization" that has relied on phone calling and door-to-door canvassing to reach some 60,000 voters since the group set up in eight area counties Aug. 1.

They also have put up yard signs, marched in parades and offered a little public demonstration against Mr. Baker — most notably a picket line against his position on health care reform.

At that July event, organized by the advocacy group Citizen Action, nine younger men made up the majority of the 12 picketers, but none would acknowledge that they were working for Mr. Evans' re-election.

Of the 17 volunteers, four have been assigned to organize Rock Island County for Mr. Evans, Democratic Sen. Carol Moseley-Braun, and gubernatorial candidate Glenn Poshard.

With Election Day fast approaching, Mr. Reed is spending his final days hustling to set up a network of some 450 to 500 get-out-the-vote volunteers. "I'm learning how to put the Election Day 'one-day bake sale' into place," he said.

The school is not the first of its kind, but is a new phenomenon this year.

The training and setup were provided by Strategic Consulting Group, a Chicago-based consultancy co-run by Bob Creamer, Citizen Action of Illinois activist and husband of Democratic congressional candidate Jan Schakowsky. Her campaign manager, Jerry Morrison, is Creamer's partner.

A state representative from Evanston, Ms. Schakowsky successfully employed a campaign school to help her win the Democratic primary this spring against Hyatt Hotel heir J.B. Pritzker — who outspent her but still lost, along with party-backed state Sen. Howard Carroll.

The group is technically separate from the Evans campaign, said Eric Nelson, Mr. Evans' campaign manager, and Mr. Evans himself said in an interview that he does not control it.

Mr. Baker, in his bid to unseat Mr. Evans, has tried to make an issue of the volunteers. At a recent event, he said Mr. Evans had maybe 40 of the "outsiders" working for him.

"Imagine that, Lane Evans importing labor," Mr. Baker said.

When asked about them, Mr. Evans compared the young activists to the "Freedom Riders," the name given to northerners who worked against difficult odds to register African-Americans to vote in the South during the 1960s.

"I'm glad they're there, I don't control what they do," Mr. Evans said. "I remember when they said the Freedom Riders in the South were outsiders. I see this as part of that effort, which is part of our history of young people going out and getting people registered to vote."

Actor-director-producer DeVito found 'IT' early

NEW YORK (AP) — Deano DeVito has found IT.

In his new film, "Living Out Loud," the actor-director-producer plays an elevator operator in search of a central meaningful thing to guide his life by, the indefinable IT.

"I know that guys go through that, and some of them are never going to find IT, whatever IT is, that ephemeral, elusive thing just out of your grasp," DeVito says in Sunday's Daily News.

In his case, DeVito found IT at Saturday matinees as a boy growing in Asbury Park, N.J.

"I always thought I could do it as a kid," DeVito says. "I went to the movies all the time. It was like a thing I always thought about."

IT started for real when he left a job in his sister's beauty shop and went to study drama in the Big Apple.

"It was kind of a leap, but I had this wanderlust," DeVito says. "I wanted to come to New York."

Study led to stage work, which led to a supporting role in "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest," which led to his star-making role as surly cab dispatcher Louie DePalma on "Taxi."

Linda kept Paul sane when Beatles broke up

LONDON (AP) — Paul McCartney credits his late wife Linda with keeping him sane after the Beatles split up.

"I felt completely useless when the Beatles broke up. I was probably on the edge of a nervous breakdown," he said, according to the Mail on Sunday.

"She gave me confidence. She said, 'You're great, you're OK,'" the singer-songwriter said of his American wife, who died of breast cancer in April at age 56.

Pavarotti performs

Italian tenor Luciano Pavarotti sings money for the Cologne arena, Saturday, Germany. The arena is the largest many; it accommodates about 18,000.

After the 1970 band breakup, the McCartneys spent time at a farm in Scotland, where Mrs. McCartney taught her husband how to ride on horseback.

"We liked doing very simple and very down-to-earth things. During the time we spent up there I did a lot of sheep-shearing. It's the only time in my life I had shoulders," McCartney said. "Through the nature in Scotland, through riding and through her support I did manage to get it back together."

McCartney gave the interview to promote the Oct. 26 release of a solo album recorded by his wife.

Democrats from the U.S. House of Representatives to the State House have been working for reforms that put patients and their doctors back in control of health care decisions.

Democratic Patients' Bill of Rights Plan

- Choice of Doctor.
- All medical decisions are made by medical professionals, not accountants.
- Guaranteed access to specialist care.
- Coverage for all FDA-approved drugs and devices.
- Policies written in plain, simple English.

While Democrats fight to protect working families and safeguard our health care decisions, the Republicans are trying to stall and block meaningful reforms of HMO's. Instead, they are offering watered down proposals that are designed to protect HMO's and insurance companies from legal responsibility for their actions, rather than protecting patients' access to care.

The stakes are too high to stay home.
